in Poor Health.

Special to The Washington Herald.

Annapolis, Md., April 3.—It is very likely that the Midshipmen's baseball team will be compelled to elect another captain for the remainder of this season. Benjamin R. Lombard, of Hillhouse, Miss., the pres ent leader who plays third base, is in bad health, and it is expected will be granted an extended leave of absence. Prior to the opening of the baseball season, Lom bard was on leave for several weeks. Upon his return he joined the squad and has participated in the few games already

In the event of the election of another allen Bacon, of New Highlands, Mass., second base, and Frederick T. Van Auken, of Plainfield, N. J., pitcher, with the chances probably in favor of the former. Syracuse and the Midshipmen met in a baseball game here to-day, and although the visitors had the better of it so far as the contest progressed, a dispute arose as to when the same should terminate

GOULD TO INSPECT LINE.

Plans Laid to Connect Wabash with Tidewater Road Soon,

Pittsburg, April 3.-An inspection of the local Wabash property in connection with the proposed tidewater connecting link President Finley Says People will be made shortly by George J. Gould. The local officials have been notified of Mr. Gould's coming, but the exact date s not given.

is not given.

The Wabash is understood to have secured the trackage rights from the Pittsburg and Lake Erie Rallroad over the latter's line from Pittsburg to Dickerson Run. The purchase by the Gould interests of the Western Maryland Railway will give them a tidewater line, necessitating only a connecting link between Cumberland and the Connellsville coke region.

A number of large improvements which have been suspended along the Wheeling and Lake Shore division in Ohio will likely be ordered to proceed by Mr. Gould.
